PRESS RELEASE – 23 JANUARY 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MINT Announces Business Restructuring Program

Minor International Public Company Limited (“MINT”) would like to announce its business restructuring program (the “Program”) via an exchange of new shares of MINT with Minor Corporation Public Company Limited (“MINOR”) shares in accordance with Kor Chor. 6/2000. In concert with this exchange MINT will enact a capital reduction equal to the quantum valorum of shares held by MINOR and its subsidiary the Minor Food Group Public Company Limited (“MFG”). This will result in the elimination of to the cross shareholding between the companies. This Program is aimed at streamlining and strengthening the business operations of MINT and enhancing shareholder value for both MINT and MINOR.

The Board of Directors of MINT believes that this Program offers a fair and transparent proposal for the shareholders of both entities and expects the concept to be well received.
