

MINT WON OUTSTANDING INVESTOR RELATIONS AWARDS FOR THE 2ND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Minor International Public Company Limited (“MINT”) is pleased to announce that it received Outstanding Investor Relations Awards 2017 for the second consecutive year by the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) and Money and Banking Magazine.

MINT was recognized among SET-listed companies with market capitalization of over Bt 100,000m in the Outstanding Investor Relations Awards 2017 for its excellence in implementing the investor relations (IR) program. The SET Investor Relations Awards is highly recognized by the Thai investment community and is based on questionnaires of IR practices collected from publicly-listed companies and satisfaction surveys from research analysts and fund managers at leading financial institutions.

William E Heinecke, Chairman and Group CEO of MINT commented, "We are honored to be recognized by the Stock Exchange of Thailand and local investment community for our efforts and commitment to lead best IR practices. We will continue to maintain a high standard of our IR program and continuously improve the quality and transparency of our communications in order to strengthen our relationships with shareholders and investment communities".
