

MINT WON TWO PRESTIGIOUS AWARDS FOR LEADING BEST BUSINESS & INVESTOR RELATIONS PRACTICES IN ASIA

Minor International Public Company Limited (“MINT”) is pleased to announce the acceptance of two awards for its excellence in business practices and investor relations.

MINT was named a “Most Honored Mid-Cap Company” in Thailand by Institutional Investor in the 2017 All-Asia Executive Awards. Institutional Investor’s Annual All-Asia Executive Awards are one of the most influential awards and this is the first time that Institutional Investor published country winners from emerging countries in Asia. The Most Honored Companies ranking reflects the recognition by the investment community in the areas of corporate governance, management leadership and investor relations practices. The 2017 awards were based on a survey of more than 3,900 investment professionals at 980 financial services firms managing an estimated $1.5 trillion in Asian equities.

In addition, MINT won “Best in Sector Award” in the Consumer Discretionary sector at the IR Magazine Awards & Conference – South East Asia 2017. This is the fourth time that MINT has received this award. For over 25 years, IR Magazine has honored excellence in investor relations around the world. The Awards were based on votes of hundreds of investors and analysts on which companies lead the best investor relations in Southeast Asia.

William E Heinecke, Chairman and Group CEO of MINT commented, “We are honored to be widely recognized among the investment community in Asia. These prestigious awards are great testaments of our commitment to lead best practices for all aspects of our company. We will continue to take necessary steps to drive better engagement with investors and build long-lasting value to our stakeholders.”
