Minor International Public Company Limited ("MINT") is pleased to announce that it is included in THAIPAT Institute's 2019 ESG100 Companies. This is the 4th consecutive year that MINT is recognized for its Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) best practices.

MINT was among the selected 100 SET-listed companies with outstanding sustainability performance. The award signifies MINT's excellent effort in sustainable development and corporate governance. THAIPAT's ESG Rating was launched in 2015 to track the performance of the leading companies in terms of environmental, social, and governance performance factors and selects top 100 out of 771 companies/funds/trusts that are being assessed. The ESG Rating is designed to serve as benchmarks for investors who integrate ESG factors into their investment decisions and provides an effective engagement platform for corporate engagement and stewardship.

William E. Heinecke, Founder and Chairman of MINT commented, "We are honored to be included in this index for four consecutive years. It is greatly rewarding to see our commitment and efforts in making a lasting positive impact to our stakeholders and environment being recognized. We will continue to drive our sustainability practices in every facet of our businesses to achieve a better and more sustainable future for our stakeholders."
